

general shall report the fact to the Governor, who shall thereupon revoke the commissions of the officers of such company, and every such revocation shall be communicated by the adjutant general to the commandant on whose report the same was founded.

24. The said commandant shall then furnish a list of the men who last composed said company to the captain of the district militia within whose bounds said men reside, who shall immediately enrol them in the said district militia and notify them thereof, and if any officer shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this section, he shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

25. No cavalry uniformed company shall consist of more than sixty men, and no rifle, artillery or infantry company shall consist of more than one hundred men, exclusive of commissioned officers, and no uniformed brigade which has for two successive years less than two regiments, and no uniformed regiment which has for two successive years less than four companies of infantry, riflemen or artillery, or if of cavalry, less than two companies, shall continue or retain its organization.

26. Whenever a volunteer company is reduced to less than twenty members, or whenever a company fails to hold one parade for drill and exercise, between the first of March and the first of November in any year, it shall be considered as dissolved.

27. The commanding officer of every uniform volunteer company shall make a report to the adjutant general in the month of November of each year, according to such forms as the adjutant general may prescribe, and the adjutant general shall from time to time furnish suitable blanks and forms to the respective commanding officers, to enable them to make said report.

28. If from the returns received or wanting the adjutant general shall suspect that any uniformed brigade or regiment has not such complement, he shall cause the same to be investigated, and if it shall appear that such brigade or regiment has not said complement, he shall report the fact to the Governor, who shall thereupon revoke the commissions of the general and
